MID-ATLANTIC GERMANIC SOCIETY

A GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY

Est. 1982

VOLUME 2      ISSUE 2

AUGUST - 1984

IT'S THAT TIME AGAIN . . . .

Time for the annual Fall meeting. This year's meeting will be held in Frederick, Maryland at the Holiday Inn, on October 27....and the speaker will be the Rev. Frederick S. Weiser, pastor at St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Biglersville, Pennsylvania. The Rev. Weiser is active in the Pennsylvania German Society, the Adams, Berks, Lehigh and Lancaster County Historical Societies -- and the Pennsylvania Genealogical Society. He will speak to MAGS members on "Saturation Research in Land Records" (in the morning) -- and "The Pennsylvania Germans" (after lunch). Watch your mailbox for further information and....kommen-sie!

DO YOU KNOW WHERE YOU'RE GOING TO?

MAGS member, William B. Fetters is assisting Herberg Wenk of Weissenhasel, Hessen in locating information on the former residents of the village of Weissenhasel. Mr. Wenk has written a booklet on the history of the village, with a section on the villagers who came to the U.S., 1847-1860. His information, however, is far from complete, and he is interested in finding out what happened to these people once they got here. He would like to write an expanded version of his booklet, Zur Geschichte des Dorfes Weissenhasel. Below is the information (also see Queries Section) that Mr. Fetters has acquired. Anyone recognizing names or who would just like to help out, contact William B. Fetters, 12814 Brunswick Lane, Bowie, MD 20715.

Where did 73 emigrants from village of Weissenhasel, Hessen settle in U. S.? Twenty-eight arrived on Bremen ship, "Marianne", in Baltimore, June 2, 1848: Henrich (54) and Elisa Dorothea GEORGE and 6 children; Martin (35) and Anna Martha BRAUN and 3 children; Madiga EISEL (60) and 2 daughters; Agnes SANDROCK (42) and 3 children; Anna Elis. KNABE (27); Catherine Elis. WETTERAU (22); Martin WETTERAU (18); Adam BACHMAN (22); Conrad LINHOS (30) Heinrich SCHMIDT (19); Heinrich SCHNEIDER (29) and Christina SCHNEIDER (25). Twenty-eight more came between 1849 and 1858: Carl LANDGREBE (b 1823); Johannes JUSTUS (b 1832), Johann Heinrich (b 1827), Justus (b 1835), and Jakob (b 1836) SCHMIDT; Johann Adam NOLL (b 1836), Johannes MENGEL (b 1824), wife and 3 children; Johannes PLOSS (b 1826); Johannes KNIERIM (b 1799), wife and 2 children; George BAUER (b 1829); Johannes BORNSCHIER (b 1823); Jakob Konrad (b 1834) and Georg SCHÄFER; Konrad BRAUN (b 1838); George HERBIG (b 1799), wife and 2 children; Konrad WETTERAU (b 1824); George LANDEFELD (b 1832); and Johannes ULRICH (b 1823). Fifteen came between 1864 and 1869: Johann Peter IFLAND, wife and 4 children; Adam SCHNEIDER (b 1849); Katherina MÖHLHAUSE; Johannes and Georg Adam LANDBREBE; and Johannes SCHMAUCH, wife and 3 children. Two came in 1880's: George RÜPPEL and Martin Adam BRANDAU.

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE -

There are several items which I would like to discuss, some that concern all members and some that concern just those members interested in a specific geographical area.

First, let me talk about Hampshire County, Virginia. I am talking about Hampshire County as it was originally erected, in 1753. Please refer to my article in Der Kurier, Vol. 2, Issue 2, Nov., 1983. Through that article and through my private correspondence, I recommended The West Virginia Advocate as an instrument of research. It is published in Capon Bridge, West Virginia and until recently, contained genealogical articles in each issue concerning Hampshire County. It also contained an excellent query section for those who had questions regarding Hampshire County genealogy.

Dr. Wilmer L. Kerns of Arlington, Virginia was the editor of this material. In June, the paper stopped carrying Dr. Kern's column. I wrote a letter to the editor, W. E. Duliere, regarding the continuance of these articles and received the following reply: "Because of differences of opinions regarding research methodology and article journalism styles, content of articles and so forth, Mr. Kerns has withdrawn from being a contributing columnist of the Advocate. We will continue to publish articles dealing with the early history and pre-history of the Eastern Panhandle, but these articles will not go into detailed genealogical data." Readers may use the contents of the July issue of the Advocate to make a decision as to what will be published in the future. I am chagrined that I led many of you into subscribing to the paper. If you read 'between the lines' in the above quotation, I believe you may be able to determine why Dr. Kerns is no longer writing material for the paper. Dr. Kerns is like the rest of us, in that genealogy is an avocation. He is interested in Hampshire County, West Virginia and Frederick County, Virginia concerning genealogy, and has extensive files on people and genealogy of these two counties. I have persuaded him to conduct a query correspondence with interested members of MAGS. I will place his name and mailing address, with a brief message from him at the end of this column.

Secondly, I want to point out that in this issue is an article that I have written on German research. The article is in response to those of you who have written to me about either how to go about such research, or where to look for material in this area of research. I believe the article answers those questions to a limited extent. Future articles will discuss other aspects of the problem so that members may have a reliable guide to follow in their research. The price, $5.00 for the set of research papers, covers printing and first class mailing costs. There is much material that can be useful in German research and this will be placed in Der Kurier as space permits.

Thirdly, in the not too distant future, we will have an election for officers of the Society. If anyone wishes to submit names for candidates, please send these names (members only, please) to Anne T. Tenny, Nominating Committee, 10807 Montrose Ave., Garrett Park, MD 20896.

I'm sure some of you received newsletters last time with a blank page or two. The printer "goofed" and for some reason, some sheets did not print. If you received a copy without all pages intact, please write me and you will be mailed a complete copy.

I wonder if there are MAGS members in the Maryland-Virginia-West Virginia-Pennsylvania area, who would like to attend a workshop concerning the proper layout and accurate location of land tracts. The area in which the land tracts may be located is not important, they can be anywhere.

I would like to propose a four-hour workshop on this topic. Two hours in the morning would be a lecture session with adequate illustrative material and handouts. A one-hour brown-bag lunch, with drinks provided by the Society, would be followed in the afternoon by a two-hour workshop session providing layout and location of land tracts. Participants would be provided with some work materials and asked to bring a few items. Costs to participants would be kept to a minimum by meeting in a centrally-located local church. Please let me hear from you on this proposal -- Norman E. Emerick, 1323 Glendale Rd., Baltimore, MD 21239.

The following is a message from Dr. Wilmer L. Kerns: "I am conducting a research project on the roots of families which settled in Hampshire County, West Virginia and Frederick County, Virginia. The results of this study will be published at a much later time. If you are researching families in these two counties, I will search my data base or exchange information. There is no charge for this service. Also, if you want to include a family name in the proposed book, I am open for additional families. Details will be provided upon request. Write to: Dr. Wilmer L. Kerns, 4715 North 38th Place, Arlington, VA 22207."

PFÄLZISCH-RHEINISCHE FAMILIENKUNDE

I may be getting off to a bad start as your book review editor. I'm not going to mention any particular book or books. Instead, I'm going to concentrate on a truly splendid quarterly that we, as members of the Mid-Atlantic Germanic Society, should become familiar with and urge our local libraries, both public and private, to begin subscribing to, if they are not already doing so, "PFÄLZISCH-RHEINISCHE FAMILIENKUNDE: PFÄLZISCHE FAMILIEN- UND WAPPENKUNDE [PALATINE-RHENISH FAMILY DATA: PALATINE FAMILIES AND HERALDRY].

Today, the best most libraries and individuals can hope to do, given the realities of their budgets, is to begin receiving the current issues. The publication has been in existence for more than thirty years. Back issues are, therefore, both numerous and expensive to obtain. Moreover, the title did experience a few changes in the course of its existence, which adds to the problem. The series contains a veritable treasure-trove of information. Since a great many of the Germans who settled in the mid-Atlantic states came from the very area designated in the title, PFÄLZISCH-RHEINISCHE FAMILIENKUNDE, the issues, past, present and future, may, indeed, hold the key to solving some of the more enduring and perplexing facing us all.

Every issue is loaded with primary source material and new leads that can and should be pursued. If anything will encourage you to begin or resume your study of the German language, it's having access to PFÄLZISCH-RHEINISCHE FAMILIENKUNDE.

For the sake of example, here's a partial listing, in translation, of the articles from a typical, recent issue (December 1983): "Abstracts from the Church Visitation Records of (Glan-) Odenbach to the Year 1558" (Schaaff); "The Inhabitants of Gleisweiler in the Seventeenth Century" (Schönsiegel); "The Names in the Münchweilerer and Gonbacher ACCOUNT-BOOK, 1767-1791" (Busch); "From the Evangelical-Lutheran Churchbook in Freimersheim" (Salm); "Palatine Deserters/Refugees in Krefeld, 1693-1697" (Jansz); "The Marriages of Non-Residents Recorded in the Lutheran Churchbook, Alzey, 1764-1798" (Montino); "The Discovery of a Long-Lost Churchbook" (Schaaff); "Palatines Buried in St. Peter's Churchyard in Urbana, Indiana" (Hauptert and Paul); "The Religious Emigrants from Lachen to the United States (1834)" (Anhaeusser); and, "Some Indications of Swiss Immigration into the Palatinate" (Montino).

Information about an annual subscription can be obtained by writing: PFÄLZISCH-RHEINISCHE FAMILIENKUNDE, 6700 Ludwigshafen/Rhein, Rottstr., 17 (Stadtarchiv), West Germany. The cost is $15.00 (U.S.).

With September 1st, came the MAGS new year and time to check your membership status. If you will check your address label, your membership number is listed -- ending with the year in which your membership expires. If it says, "84" -- you will need to send in your dues right away to be sure that DER KURIER and Society announcements will continue to reach you. We have managed to keep membership at $5 single, $7 family for the moment, but this might be a good time to think about sending in dues for multiple years. Check the membership on the back page and mail in your dues NOW.

Names on File -

Since the beginning of MAGS, the Research Committee has received a great deal of data on German names and families, together with identification of members researching them. The following files have been organized to provide access to this data.

The Surname File: Most MAGS members are familiar with this file, and hopefully most have submitted cards for inclusion. If not, see instructions elsewhere in this issue for preparing the cards. And think of the wealth of data contained on them; not only the primary surname but also the synonyms/alternative spellings, as well as names of the families with whom intermarried and of other families being researched. Some cards have as many as 20 names on them! In order to make all the names as accessible as the primary names, a computer-generated directory is being prepared which will cross-index all the names in the Surname File. It is expected to be ready in time for the October meeting.

Keystone Families and Keystone Queries:

This collection was started by Bev Hoch, assisted by Elsie Swartwout; they have clipped family write-ups and genealogical queries from Schuyler C. Brossman's column in The Press and Journal of Middletown, Pennsylvania and cross-indexed them on file cards. This index will be added to the computer data base at a later date. The card index is checked now when you send in a query for the surname file.

MAGS Families: This is a notebook containing family newsletters or genealogies which have been submitted by MAGS members. To date, the surnames include Caquelin/Cocklin; Dohner/Donner, etc.; Graybill; Lucas; Repasz; and Repogle. They have not been indexed, but copies may be obtained at cost from Stumped Roots.

Family Group Sheets: Group sheets submitted by MAGS members when they send problems to Stumped Roots are filed, but have yet to be organized.

(con't.) A volunteer for Family Group Sheets would be welcome.

Sue Schnebly Smyser has volunteered to join the Research Committee and will take over responsibility for the Surname File. So, beginning the first of October -- SURNAMES for the Surname File and requests for information from the file should be sent to Sue S. Smyser, 6266 Rose Hill Dr., Alexandria, VA. Surnames should be submitted on a 3x5 card using the following format. Or bring them to the October meeting:

' Primary name	State
' Alternate spelling(s)	County
' First name, birth date, marriage data, children, death data, other pertinent information. (If all information not available, send what you do know.)
' Also researching surname(s):
' Your name	Date submitted
' Address

GERMAN RESEARCH - There have been a good many requests from time to time from those of our members who desire guidance in researching their German ancestors, both in this country and in Europe. In an effort to satisfy this desire, Norman Emerick has put together a collection of different types of information which could be of considerable help for anyone whether they are experienced or not.

First, there are a number of articles in past issues of the NATIONAL GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY QUARTERLY which deal with material concerning German ancestors both in this country and in Europe. This publication is available at most large libraries.

1. GERMAN REFORMED CHURCH RECORDS IN PENNSYLVANIA, by Prof. William J. Hinke, Vol. 37, June 1949, No. 2, p. 33.
2. EMIGRANTS FROM BURDEN-DURLACH TO PENNSYLVANIA, 1749-1755, by Dr. Friedrich Krebs, Archivist, Speyer,

Germany, Vol. 45, Mar 1957,
No. 1, p. 30.

3. RESEARCHING BEYOND THE ATLANTIC IN SEARCH OF GERMAN IMMIGRANT ANCESTORS, by Klaus G. Wust, Vol. 45, June 1957, No. 2, p. 61.
4. GENEALOGICAL RESEARCH IN GERMAN-SPEAKING LANDS, A Symposium, Editor Milton Rubincam, Vol. 45, Sept 1957, No. 3, p. 118.
  - a. Genealogical Sources in German-Speaking Lands, General Introduction, by Ralph Dornfeld Owen.
  - b. Searching for American families in Germany and Austria, by Karl Friedrich Von Frank.
  - c. Possibilities for Genealogical Research in the Palatinate by Dr. Fritz Braun, Director, Archives, Kaiserslautern.
  - d. What can the Archives at Speyer Offer American Genealogy by Dr. Friedrich Krebs, Director.
5. Continued in Vol. 45, Dec 1957, No. 4, p. 203.
  - e. Sources for Hessian Genealogy, by Dr. Heinz F. Friederichs.
  - f. Genealogical Research in Hesse-Darmstadt, by Dr. Adam Heldmann, Gross Bieberau, Odenwald, Hesse.
  - g. Concerning Genealogy in Switzerland, by Dr. W. H. Ruoff, Zurich.
  - h. The Ahnenpass (Ancestor Passport) of Nazi Germany, by Milton Rubincam and John I. Coddington.

Each of the above articles has an excellent bibliography, which can be helpful for additional research, whether experienced or not; even though not of recent vintage.

Second, an article in the Pennsylvania Genealogical Magazine, Vol. 25, 1968, No. 4, is of companionable interest to some of the above articles; Researching European Origins of the Pennsylvania German Families, by Milton Rubincam, p. 227. There is an excellent bibliography with this article.

A series of splendid resource books of great help in researching your German ancestors, both here and in Germany are:

1. Address Book for Germanic Genealogy, Second Edition 1980, by Ernest Thode, RR7, Box 306, Kern Rd., Marietta, OH 45750. (This book covers most of the genealogical societies, libraries, public and private archives, map sources and form letters to different agencies.) $8.25 postpaid; $8.67 in Ohio.
2. Atlas for Germanic Genealogy, 1982, by Ernest Thode. (A thorough and complete atlas covering all of the areas of concern, one would have need for in their research.) $8.25 postpaid, $8.67 in Ohio (Maps are hand-drawn and are not detailed.)
3. Bibliography and Source Materials for German-American Research, Vol. One, USA, edited by Arta F. Johnson, 153 Aldrich Rd., Columbus, OH 43214. (One of the most complete bibliographies of its kind in existence. Tells how to go about research, covers immigration, religious groups, special groups, source materials for individual states, libraries and archives in addition to several other categories.) $10.80 postpaid.
4. Locating Your Colonial German Families in Pennsylvania and Locating Your Pennsylvania German Ancestor in Europe, by Annette K. Burgert, P. O. Box 93, Worthington, OH 43085. (Each of these booklets covers in brief, but thorough form all of the information required for adequate research.) $2.50 each, postpaid.

Each of the above authors has a collection of books and research aids, which are very helpful in furthering your research. A descriptive price list may be obtained from the authors by writing and requesting a copy of the list and enclosing a SASE.

MAGS has a number of articles on many different aspects of German research both in this country and in Europe. Some of you may have received a few of these articles in your membership package, but not all of them. Reprints of these articles may be obtained by writing Paula L. Busick, Corresponding Secretary, 1212 W. 41st St., Balto., MD 21211 -- and enclosing $5.00 to cover printing and postage. The articles are as follows:

1. Searching for Mennonite Ancestors, by J. Lemar and Lois Ann Mast. (5 sheets)
2. Genealogical Research in Germany by Richard G. Schmidt, Ft. Meade Genealogical Society. (4 sheets)
3. Finding Your German Ancestors by Dr. Robert E. Ward, Editor, Journal of German-American Studies, reprinted from Family Heritage Magazine, Vol. 1, No. 1, Feb 1978. (5 sheets)
4. German Settlement in the Carolinas, Georgia and Virginia by Clifford Neal Smith. (A bibliography, 2 sheets)
5. German Script and Alphabet with pronunciation guide. (2 sheets)
6. Sample Form Letters that may be sent to different German Agencies. In German and English (2 sheets)
7. Some references on German-American Family Names, a bibliography, by C. E. Schildknecht. (1 sheet)
8. Genealogical Tidbits and books for German Research; explanation of Social Security Numbers, availability of European Maps are the tidbits. (2 sheets)
9. Some German Surname Spelling Variations and where they occur in the United States before 1850. (4 sheets)
10. Sources for Finding Places of Origin in Germany. (2 sheets)
11. Information Regarding Naturalization Records, compiled by Waldo A. Tulk, The Historical Society of Pennsylvania (1 sheet)
12. Two books which show Roots of Early German Settlers in Frederick County, Maryland by Calvin E. Schildknecht (4 sheets)

There is a very good source concerning German immigrants who settled in Maryland. It is THE REPORT, A Journal of German-

American History, published by the Society for the History of the Germans in Maryland. These journals are published periodically and begin in 1887. This publication is available in most large libraries. Issue No. 38 (1982) contains two articles (bibliography) on German Church records in Maryland, Virginia and West Virginia. One article is by Frederick S. Weiser and the other by Peggy Shomo Joyner.

The above source material is by no means the total of what is available to help the individual researcher with those many and diverse problems associated with German ancestors. Over a period of time, this subject will be discussed in additional articles. If you have requests for specific types of help in this research area, please write: Norman C. Emerick, President, 1323 Glendale Rd., Baltimore, MD 21239, and give him your ideas. They will be incorporated into future articles.

URGENT - PLEASE READ: Since the membership of MAGS has dramatically increased, the newsletter is going to a large number of people, libraries and museums. It is our wish to find a volunteer who has access to equipment with a justified right margin. This equipment would produce a more professional newsletter. If you are able to assist your fellow members by preparing DER KURIER (quarterly), please contact the Editor, Deborah M. Showalter, 207 Duke Drive, Sterling, VA 22170 (703-444-2811)
