PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

The May meeting was well attended and enjoyable. Most members found the New Windsor Service Center ideal for our meetings, both as to place and facilities, and those of us who stayed overnight were pleased with the accommodations and their price. At the business meeting it was decided that MAGS should try to hold one yearly meeting at New Windsor, when and if a regular schedule can be arranged. The Board is looking into that.

Another wish of the membership was to have a regular schedule for meetings. Accordingly, the Board has determined that meetings will be held on the fourth Saturday in October and the fourth Saturday in April of each year. This will begin with our next meeting, which has been rescheduled for the 25th of October, 1986. It will be at the Holiday Inn in Manassas, VA; we hope this will make it easier for our Virginia and West Virginia members to attend. And Civil War buffs might want to stay over the weekend and explore the battlefields.

We shall have two speakers at the October meeting - Milton Rubincam and Mary K. Meyer. Mr. Rubincam, Fellow of the American Society of Genealogists, Fellow of the National Genealogical Society and a Certified Genealogist, is eminent in the field of genealogy and is an authority on Pennsylvania.

He will talk on "Research in Pennsylvania" with emphasis on German research. Mary K. Meyer, our 2nd Vice President and eminent in her own right, will speak to us on "The 1709ers," a German group which settled in New York state in 1709. The speakers' biographies appear on the meeting flyers mailed out with the auction literature you should have already received. Additional flyers may be obtained by writing to Phyllis Lott, Corresponding Secretary, 12111 Mt. Albert Rd., Ellicott City, MD 21043.

The Board is also considering several possibilities for special publications. But first we need an editor! Anyone interested in editing special publications for the Society is urged to get in touch with one of the officers. We also need a translator for some letters written to Germany from Baltimore, MD at the turn of the 19th century, which we hope to publish. Again, we need volunteers.

RESTORATION OF PASTORIUS HOME

The boyhood home of Franz Daniel Pastorius, leader of the first German settlers in America (1683), was acquired in 1983 by the Pastorius Home Association in Germansville, PA and their sister organization in Germany.

Located in Bad Windsheim, West Germany, renovation has been underway to restore this historic building to its original charm and beauty, by a combined voluntary effort of German and American citizens. The restored Pastorius House will contain a boys' and girls' dorm, lecture hall, library, kitchen and dining room, entrance and reception hall and eight guest rooms each with double occupancy and private facilities.

Anyone is invited to visit and stay at the Pastorius House anytime. The home officially opened in July, 1986 and is open all year round. An educational, cultural, historical, or genealogical program will be held every day of the year, and one may take part in any of the activities, relax, or use it as a home base when travelling through Europe.

In addition, there will be an annual graduate level German language seminar for adults, intensive fun-filled language camp for youngsters, aged 12-16, and an undergraduate fall and spring semester.

If MAGS members are interested in contributing to the continuing DM1.5 million restoration, make your contributions payable to Pastorius Home Association, Box 66, Germansville, PA 18053.

ANCESTOR HARDSHIPS: COULD WE BE AS BRAVE?

(Ed. note: Below is a synopsis from the article, "The Wreck of the Ship John in Delaware Bay, 1732," published in the Pennsylvania Magazine of History and Biography, April 1889.)

"They had been in the water 13 weeks out of Gravesend. Storms and the northwest wind, thunder and lightning had kept the ship from landing. In December there was so much ice in the river, that the captain couldn't enter Philadelphia until March 6. There had been reports of the wreck of the Ship John upon a shoal 10 miles above Lewes. The captain of the John allowed each passenger to take one bundle of belongings. The first life boat was readied, but after all the baggage had been put in, there was little room for people. Seven passengers finally managed to get in, but the sailors, paying no attention to them began to shove off. The wind whipped the boat around and it went headfirst into the water. Four of the people came up, but one died soon after. The captain then decided to try and lighten the ship in order to stay with it as long as possible. Twenty tons of ballast were heaved overboard. The main mast was cut away to no avail. Someone saw an approaching ship and guns were fired to give a distress signal. Fires were also lighted. The other ship ignored the signals and sailed away. The passengers then tried to make their own boat. Two sailors and a clergyman were to go in it and get help. They were on the open sea for 24 hours, the sailors' legs freezing and the clergyman dying of exposure. The passengers continued to wait for five days and nights, hoping for rescue. On the sixth day, a sloop came into view and took everyone aboard."

NEW BOOKS NOW AVAILABLE FROM KEGLEY BOOKS

Kimberling Church, Wythe County Virginia; Annotated Baptismal and Cemetery Records, by Beverly Repass Hoch, Mary B. Kegley and Timothy Smith.

The Kimberling Church of Wythe County is one of the older in southwest Virginia and the early German records have been preserved. The compilers have transcribed the baptismal records and the information from the tombstones presently existing in the cemetery. The result is a book of 139 pages, with information about many German families of the western end of Wythe County in the Black Lick community.

Because of the unusual German spellings, it is often difficult for those unfamiliar with the language to recognize the present spelling of the local names. Consequently, annotations of the records have been provided giving the current spelling, as well as information from the deeds, wills and printed records on these founding families of Wythe County. Each entry is documented, and a bibliography provided. The baptismal records begin in 1779 and continue through 1868. There are about 400 tombstone records. A short introduction to the community and the ministers who serve is also included.

The Kimberling Church was originally established as Lutheran and Presbyterian (or Reformed) jointly, but gradually the Presbyterians were unable to locate pastors to serve and they intermarried with the Lutherans to such an extent that they no longer remained a separate entity.

The book has 22 pages of index including such names as Armbrister, Berk, Brandstetter, Buchanan, Cassell, Copenhaver, Dobler, Etter, Groseclose, Hounshell, Kegley, Musser, Phillippi, Snavely and Umberger.

The price for each book is $12.00; shipping and handling $2.00. Order from and make check payable to Kegley Books, P. O. Box 134, Wytheville, VA 24382.

IMMIGRANTS TO WESTERN MARYLAND

Dr. Calvin E. Schildknecht of Gettysburg, PA is currently compiling a list of settlers in western Maryland for publication. Names, origin, previous village, town or region, alternate spelling of names, dates of immigration and places of settlement will be included in the list. References on where the information was found will be given when available.

Dr. Schildknecht asks anyone who has ancestors in western Maryland to send him the above information for inclusion in the list. Send information to Dr. C. E. Schildknecht, 135 Doubleday Ave., Gettysburg, Pa 17325.

Deadline for information is January 1, 1987.

DESCENDANTS WANTED

A fellow genealogist living in Germany is interested in locating present day descendants of a collateral line that settled in Baltimore, MD around 1800. The original immigrants were Johann Georg Richstine, his wife, and several children.

It is not clear that the male line survived into the 20th century, but some of the female lines Donsee, Butzer (Putzer), VonHollen, Tinken, (Thomas Long) Jones of Baltimore, Van Dusen of Philadelphia around 1880 and Bird of Elizabeth, NJ in the late 1880's. Anyone knowing of such ancestors is urged to get in touch with Anne Tenny, Box 141, Garrett Park, MD 20896-0141.

IT'S NOT THE REAL THING

A company called American Genealogies, Inc. in Plainfield, NJ is producing a family album for $29.85 that "gives" you the names of possible families with your surname. The same information can be found by checking telephone directories at any large public library.

MENNONITE INDEX

The Mennonite Library and Archives at Bethel College in North Newton, Kansas is publishing an index which lists nearly 15,000 Mennonites who immigrated to the United States during the last quarter of the nineteenth century. Over 200 ships are included. This volume supplements Clarence Hiebert's now out-of-print Brothers in Deed to Brothers in Need by listing immigrants on 75 additional ships and indexing every Mennonite name found, including those in Hiebert's book.

Genealogists may use this index to discover the date their ancestors arrived, the ship carrying them, the port of arrival, and the names, ages and occupations of family members.

Twenty-three family names appear over 150 times in the index, including Becker, Boese, Dick, Enns, Friesen, Harms, Hofer, Jantzen, Kroeker, Nickel, Penner, Peters, Ratzlaff, Reiger, Reimer, Schmidt, Schroeder, Thiessen, Unruh, Voth, Wedel, Wiebe and Wiens. In part this data explains why these particular names are very common in many General Conference and Mennonite Brethren congregations today. Schmidt, the most popular name, has 500 entries in the index. One ship alone had 14 Jacob and 11 Marie Schmidts. Of course, some family names have only one entry in the index: Dietrich, Ginzi, Graf and Hanneman are examples.

The Index to Mennonite Immigrants is available from the Mennonite Library and Archives, Bethel College, North Newton, KS 67117 at a price of $20.00 U.S. per copy (shipping and handling included).

MARYLAND RECORDS SERVICE RAISES FEES

The Maryland State Department of Mental Hygiene's Division of Vital Records increased its fees to $3.00 for all copies of birth, death and marriage certificates on July 1, 1986.

The fee increase, legislated by the 1986 General Assembly and signed into law by Governor Harry Hughes, will allow the division to automate its operations, enabling it to serve and answer mailed requests in less than a week.

For information; call the Division of Vital Records in Baltimore at (301) 225-5988.

NEW MICROFILM AT THE NATIONAL ARCHIVES

These microfilms are now available in the microfilm reading room at the National Archives:

M1410, 429 rolls, "Passenger Lists of Vessels Arriving at San Francisco, 1893-1953"

Early lists of immigrants from Canada through St. Albans, VT, Detroit, MI and Buffalo, NY have been found and will be microfilmed. Dates are not yet available.

NEW BOOK ON AMISH-MENNONITE EMIGRANTS

A new book by Hermann Guth of Saarbrucken, Germany, is titled The Amish-Mennonites of Waldeck and Wittgenstein.

The majority of this book gives genealogical data on the various families from Waldeck and Wittgenstein (Germany) prior to 1830, citing names, dates, residence in Germany, and even their origins in Switzerland. An excellent historical introduction explaining background, life as leasers-managers for the noble landlords, and religious revival movements is also included. An appendix at the end lists the surnames of all the inhabitants in the estates in Nassau-Siegen and Wittgenstein, Waldeck, and Kurhessen and Oberhessen u. Nassau. An every-name index concludes the book.

Thousands of American Mennonites are descended from these Swiss Amish-Mennonite families who settled in Waldeck and Wittgenstein. Between 1750 and 1850, the Amish-Mennonite congregations flourished in these areas, but just as quickly disappeared with a wave of emigration to North America.

The prepublication price of this book will be $5.00 plus $1.00 for postage and handling until October 1, 1986. Orders can be mailed to Mennonite Family History, P. O. Box 171, Elverson, PA 19520.

TIDBITS, MORSELS AND CRUMBS

If your ancestor purchased land from a federal land office or the State of Ohio, the Ohio State Land Office personnel will check their card index free of charge. Be sure to mention the area of the state in which your ancestor lived. The office also has a free booklet giving a short history of early state divisions. To check your ancestor's land purchase or receive the booklet Ohio Lands, write to Ohio State Land Office, 4th Floor, 88 East Broad St., Columbus, OH 43215. Unfortunately, the State Land Office does not have records for the Connecticut Western Reserve, the Firelands, or the Symmes Purchase.

Pennsylvania was a proprietary colony until the land office closed. Men would buy land in their children's names, so that if something happened to the father, the children would not lose the land in their name.

‡

The great majority of German settlers to the Shenandoah Valley of Virginia were from Lebanon, Berks, Philadelphia, Lancaster and York counties in Pennsylvania.

After the Thirty Years' War (1618-1648), the Treaty of Westphalia guaranteed legal recognition to those of Lutheran, Reformed and Calvinist religions. Those who worshipped in the Mennonite, Schwenkfelder, Pietist or other sectarian religions did not enjoy such freedoms, however, and their status was virtually non-existent.

In the mid-1700's there were three main roads in western Pennsylvania that settlers used to go west: the Braddock Road, from Cumberland, MD to Pittsburgh, PA (Today: U.S. 40); the Forbes Road, from Harrisburg to Pittsburgh, PA (Today: U.S. 30), and the Venango Trail.

The word "Shenandoah" is the Indian term for "daughter of the stars."
